

Camden & Rockland

Cafe Miranda

With a menu that ranges from Korean to "my Italian grandmother," Cafe Miranda has something for jvwhatever mood I happen to be in at any given second. Many elements complete the experience h"ere, from the bread baked fresh daily to the copy of Cloudy with a Chance of Meatballs I found in the bathroom.

Wasses Hot Dogs

The only way I could be persuaded into competing in a hot-dog-eating contest would be if the dogs came from this place. Even though I wtJuld probably still lose, weil, at

Be sure to sit at the counter least I would be happy. Grilled in peanut oil and unbelievably good, you should make a quick stop here every time you're in Rockland.

Home Kitchen Cafe

After having an amazing/breakfast here that included one of the best sticky buns I've ever had, I promptly returned for lunch and found the burger to be equally good. At this point, I'm starting to wonder if there's anything these guys don't do well. It's all so tasty, I may even be tempted to try one of their vegetarian options Actually, on second thought, I'll stick with the burgers.
